What's for Supper?

Simple, family-favorite comfort foods and the time-saving, budget-conscious tips families need

Publication date:
Aug. 31, 2010

$24.99 Jacketed hardcover

Author, images, excerpts available

Two years after her spectacular, best-selling first release (Simply Salads, Thomas Nelson, 2008) hit shelves, author Jennifer Chandler has returned to the table with the second course – Simply Suppers (Thomas Nelson, August 2010).

Suppers includes a recipe for every occasion, from casual weeknight dinners to elegant gatherings, and all the potluck suppers in between.

Easy-to-find ingredients, over 100 photos, simple step-by-step instructions and masterful time-saving, preparation, freezing and substitution tips will have readers in the kitchen preparing over 100 family-favorite comfort foods in no time, including entrées, side dishes, and desserts.

Suppers will also be hitting shelves just in time for busy families returning to school in the fall – and for whom the following items will be particularly helpful:

30 in about 30: 30 recipes that can be whipped up in about 30 minutes. Includes soups, poultry, fish, beef, pork, pasta, sandwiches

10 leftover chicken makeovers: 10 ways to turn leftovers into something delicious

20 “Freezer Go-To” items: recipes to make double batches of for freezing ... and to save you when you don't have time to cook.
